

HOLY CROSS LUTHERAN CHURCH

CHRISTMAS EVE DECEMBER 24, 2025

In winter's deepest night, we welcome the light of the Christ child. Isaiah declares that the light of the long-promised king will illumine the world and bring endless peace and justice. Paul reminds us that the grace of God through Jesus Christ brings salvation to all people. The angels declare that Jesus' birth is good and joyful news for everyone, including lowly shepherds. Filled with the light that shines in our lives, we go forth to share the light of Christ with the whole world.

Holy Cross Lutheran Church Welcomes ALL!

Holy Cross Lutheran Church joyfully affirms and celebrates that every person is a beloved child of God. We welcome all who are seeking God's boundless love and sustaining grace into full community with us at Holy Cross. As disciples of Jesus Christ, we commit ourselves to breaking down barriers and systems that divide God's children working to be a space committed to racial equality for God's people and to building a community where all are recognized as part of Christ's new creation.

We welcome you, and you are safe with us...
 Whatever your race, ethnicity, or heritage;
 Whatever your relationship status;
 We welcome you, and you are safe with us...

Whatever your sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, or gender expression;
 Whatever your socio-economic status;
 We welcome you, and you are safe with us...

Whatever your age and life circumstance;
 Whatever your physical and mental ability.
 You are a beloved child of God, you are valued, and you are welcome here.

What to Expect in Worship

Worship services can be intimidating for newcomers. While we try to make worship as accessible as possible for everyone, we know that some aspects can be confusing. Feel free to ask an usher or someone near you for help if you have any questions today. We are happy to help and want all voices to be included in praise to God.

Our worship style is traditional at Holy Cross. A full liturgy is used to focus our praise and prayers to God. Notes are included in the side gutter of the bulletin to explain why we use the various liturgical elements. Communion is celebrated every Sunday at Holy Cross. The table (altar) is not our table, but Christ's table. Just as Christ welcomes all, all are welcome to receive communion at Holy Cross. Pastor will give instructions on how we celebrate communion at that part of the service. Written instructions are also included at that point in the bulletin.

Throughout the year we emphasize each liturgical season differently to mark the passage of time. Liturgical texts change to reflect aspects of that season, some elements are removed or added to reflect the mood of that season, and colors used to decorate the chancel are changed to provide visual reminders of the current season.

There is a hearing-assistance system (induction loop) in the Sanctuary for those with hearing impairments. Please ask an usher for instructions.

This beloved carol gathers us for Christmas Eve worship with an invitation: to come, to behold, and to adore. Rooted in an 18th-century Latin hymn, it gathers the faithful across centuries into a single act of praise at the manger. As we sing, we join angels, shepherds, and saints of every age in proclaiming the mystery of God made flesh.

GREETING

The prayer of the day, particularly appropriate for Christmas Eve, is based on collect #5 in the 7th century Gelasian Sacramentary. The time is night, the light is Christ. The prayer moves us through time and into eternity, when we will be wholly in God's light. It is moving to realize that for 1400 years, Christians have prayed this prayer.

Pastor: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Assembly: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor: Almighty God, you made this holy night shine with the brightness of the true Light. Grant that here on earth we may walk in the light of Jesus' presence and in the last day wake to the brightness of his glory; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Assembly: Amen.

With its soaring melody and jubilant “Gloria,” this French carol echoes the song of the angels announcing Christ’s birth. The verses tell the story of the shepherds, while the refrain lifts us heavenward in unrestrained praise. On Christmas Eve, this hymn reminds us that joy is not quiet or restrained; it rings out boldly, inviting earth to join heaven in celebration.

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

That the angels in Luke name the child the Messiah, in Greek "Christ," recalls oracles such as Isaiah 9, and Christians have seen in Jesus Christ the ancient promises of a coming king fulfilled. Jesus is "wonderful Counselor and mighty God" among us. Thus Christians hear in this oracle references to the triune God.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 9:2-7

This poem promises deliverance from Assyrian oppression, a hope based on the birth of a royal child with a name full of promise. While Judah's king will practice justice and righteousness, the real basis for faith lies in God's passion for the people: The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this!

Reader:

A reading from the prophet Isaiah:

²The people who walked in darkness
have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness—
on them light has shined.
³You have multiplied the nation,
you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.
⁴For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.
⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
⁶For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
⁷His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader:

Word of God, word of life.

Assembly:

Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

GOSPEL

Luke 2:1-20

In this annunciation, Luke makes clear that God comes with good news for ordinary people from little known places. This king will not be born to royalty in a palace, but to common folk in a stall.

Pastor:

The Gospel according to Luke, the 2nd chapter.

Assembly:

Glory to you, O Lord.

Luke 2, the only biblical narrative detailing the birth of Jesus, is proclaimed at the first eucharist of Christmas. In contrast to Matthew's interest in high status males, Luke emphasizes the opposite: a pregnant woman, "no place in the inn," and lower-class shepherds. Thanks in part to Luke's talent in storytelling, this narrative has become for many people

¹In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. ²This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³All went to their own towns to be registered. ⁴Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place synonymous with Christmas. The challenge at this service is to proclaim the truth of this narrative as other than and far beyond stereotypical sentimentality.

for them in the guest room.

⁸Now in that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger.” ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

¹⁴“Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace among those whom he favors!”

¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us.” ¹⁶So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Pastor: The Gospel of our Lord.
Assembly: Praise to you, O Christ.

Please sit.

CHILDREN'S SERMON

Please stand as you are able

This gentle carol invites us to kneel quietly at the manger and behold the vulnerability of the Christ child. Though often sung as a children's hymn, its simplicity carries profound truth: the Savior of the world comes not in power or splendor, but in humility and love. As we sing, we are reminded that Christ enters our world gently, meeting us where we are, offering comfort, peace, and abiding presence.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Assisting Minister: Filled with good news of great joy, let us offer our prayers for the church, the earth, and all people.

Assisting Minister: Angels sing with praise, and shepherds run with haste. As we glorify and praise you in this place, send us into the world, proclaiming the salvation you have revealed this night. God of grace, receive our prayer.

We pray for the greater church.

Assembly:

We pray for creation.

Assisting Minister: The seas roar, and the trees of the forest sing for joy. As creation resounds with praise, inspire us with awe, reverence, and a renewed care for all that fills the fields, skies, and seas. God of grace, receive our prayer.

We pray for justice.

Assisting Minister: The nations declare your glory. Uphold the leaders of the earth with your justice and righteousness. Break the rod of the oppressor in every land. Bring peace where there is conflict. God of grace, receive our prayer.

We pray for those in need.

Assisting Minister: The holy family finds shelter around the animals' manger. Draw near to persons experiencing homelessness, those who are alone this holiday season, and all for whom this world makes no room. Wrap all your children in bands of love and mercy. God of grace, receive our prayer.

We remember the saints.

Assisting Minister: The heavenly host praises you. With thanksgiving for Mary, Joseph, and all your saints, sustain us in the blessed hope revealed this night. Fashion us by their example into a people zealous for good deeds, sharing your love and mercy with all. God of grace, receive our prayer.

Pastor: Rejoicing in your Word made flesh among us, we commend these prayers to you, confident of your grace and love made known to us in Jesus Christ, our Savior.

Assembly: Amen.

The sharing of THE PEACE is an ancient ritual that puts us right with our neighbors before we offer our gifts to God.

THE PEACE

Pastor: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
And also with you.

We share God's peace.

ANTHEM

I Wonder as I Wander

Matthew Andersen, guitar & voice

Appalachian Folk Tune

Few hymns capture the sacred stillness of Christmas Eve like "Silent Night.". Written during a moment of quiet simplicity, this carol invites us into holy calm, where fear is stilled and grace is revealed. It is more than a carol. It is a prayer, a moment of collective breath, and a glimpse of the peace Christ brings into a weary world.

Often thought of as a Christmas carol, "Joy to the World" is actually a hymn of Christ's reign, celebrating not just his birth, but his ongoing work of renewing all creation. As we are sent out into the night, this hymn proclaims that the joy we have received is meant to be shared. The Lord has come, and because of that, the world is changed forever! Joy to the world!

FROM THE CLOUD OF WITNESSES

Dorothy Day, By Little and By Little, ed. Robert Ellsberg (New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 1983), 94, 96-97

It is no use saying that we are born two thousand years too late to give room to Christ. Christ is always with us, always asking for room in our hearts. But now it is with the voice of our contemporaries that he speaks, with the eyes of store clerks, factory workers, and children that he gazes; with the hand of office workers, slum dwellers, and suburban housewives that he gives. It is with the feet of soldiers and tramps that he walks, and with the heart of anyone in need that he longs for shelter. It would be foolish to pretend that it is always easy to remember this. If everyone were holy and handsome, with "alter Christus" shining in neon lighting from them, it would be easy to see Christ in everyone. But that was not Christ's way for himself, now when he is disguised under every type of humanity that treads the earth. It is not because these people remind us of Christ, but because they are Christ, asking us to find room for him, exactly as he did at the first Christmas.
