

HOLY CROSS LUTHERAN CHURCH

EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD JANUARY 4, 2026

The feast of Epiphany (“manifestation”) concludes the Christmas season with a celebration of God’s glory revealed in the person of Jesus Christ. In Isaiah and Ephesians, that glory is proclaimed for all nations and people. Like the light of the star that guided the magi to Jesus, the light of Christ reveals who we are: children of God who are claimed and washed in the waters of baptism. We are sent out to be beacons of the light of Christ, sharing the good news of God’s love to all people.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to the MANY volunteers who made Christmas at Holy Cross special! Countless tasks were done by countless people. The word “holy” in Hebrew means to set apart for a specific, divine purpose. The extra time spent leading up to Christmas allowed this festival to be just that, holy. We took a short season on our calendar and set it apart for a specific divine purpose: celebrating Christ’s birth. Blessings to all who helped create this holy space. We are truly grateful to have such dedicated members at Holy Cross.

H.U.G.S.

Life can feel especially heavy when we find ourselves without a partner—whether through the death of a spouse, divorce, or separation from family. Those seasons of loneliness can make even everyday tasks feel overwhelming. H.U.G.S. is a new group forming at Holy Cross for people navigating life on their own, offering a caring space for support, encouragement, and shared experience. We’ll walk alongside one another, listening with open hearts and offering compassion, understanding, and plenty of hugs.

The first H.U.G.S. gathering will be Sunday, January 11, after the worship service, in the conference room. If you’re grieving, feeling alone, or simply looking for connection with others who understand this journey, you are warmly invited to join us. All are welcome.

CHRISTMAS TREE THANK YOU

Thank you to Boy Scout Troup 157 for our beautiful Christmas Tree, which they donated to Holy Cross this year and several years in the past.

Beginning January 4, Adult Sunday School will begin a new session focused on Praying with Jesus. Sometimes prayer can seem challenging. Sometimes we think we are praying “wrong.” But prayer is just a conversation with God. Join the Adult Sunday School class in looking at several stories about Jesus that can help us pray. We meet Sunday mornings at 9:00 in the conference room. All are welcome.

LUNCH FOR THE SOUL

We need your help to serve our neighbors in need through this caring ministry! Holy Cross provides lunch on the first Wednesday of every month, and your support in cooking, serving, or cleanup is always welcome. Our next opportunity to serve is on Wednesday, January 7. Please consider joining us! You can sign up at: perfectpotluck.com/YEEI1717 or scan the QR code.

MLK DAY OF SERVICE – MONDAY, JAN 19

As we prepare to honor the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., everyone is invited to participate in an MLK Day of Service dedicated to compassion, community, and outreach. We are grateful to once again partner with the Herndon Woman’s Club, whose commitment to service closely aligns with our own mission.

DONATIONS NEEDED FOR MLK DAY

The Herndon Woman’s Club is looking for donations of old crayons and old socks (without holes) as part of the service projects they will be organizing on our MLK Day of Service (January 19, 2026). If you have old crayons or those pesky socks without a partner (no anklets please), please bring them to church any Sunday or contact Helen Wolfe (hkswolfe@gmail.com) or Cheryl Smith (cismith1@verizon.net).

Holy Cross Lutheran Church Welcomes ALL!

Holy Cross Lutheran Church joyfully affirms and celebrates that every person is a beloved child of God. We welcome all who are seeking God's boundless love and sustaining grace into full community with us at Holy Cross. As disciples of Jesus Christ, we commit ourselves to breaking down barriers and systems that divide God's children working to be a space committed to racial equality for God's people and to building a community where all are recognized as part of Christ's new creation.

We welcome you, and you are safe with us...
 Whatever your race, ethnicity, or heritage;
 Whatever your relationship status;
 We welcome you, and you are safe with us...

Whatever your sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, or gender expression;
 Whatever your socio-economic status;
 We welcome you, and you are safe with us...

Whatever your age and life circumstance;
 Whatever your physical and mental ability.
 You are a beloved child of God, you are valued, and you are welcome here.

What to Expect in Worship

Worship services can be intimidating for newcomers. While we try to make worship as accessible as possible for everyone, we know that some aspects can be confusing. Feel free to ask an usher or someone near you for help if you have any questions today. We are happy to help and want all voices to be included in praise to God.

Our worship style is traditional at Holy Cross. A full liturgy is used to focus our praise and prayers to God. Notes are included in the side gutter of the bulletin to explain why we use the various liturgical elements. Communion is celebrated every Sunday at Holy Cross. The table (altar) is not our table, but Christ's table. Just as Christ welcomes all, all are welcome to receive communion at Holy Cross. Written instructions on how we celebrate communion are included at that point in the bulletin.

Throughout the year we emphasize each liturgical season differently to mark the passage of time. Liturgical texts change to reflect aspects of that season, some elements are removed or added to reflect the mood of that season, and colors used to decorate the chancel are changed to provide visual reminders of the current season.

Epiphany of Our Lord

January 4, 2026 ~ 10:00 AM

The celebration of Epiphany (which means in Greek the manifestation of God) was important in the Eastern church from the fourth century and was variously connected with the stories of Jesus' birth, the visit of the magi, and Jesus' baptism. In some places it was a primary occasion for baptisms. In some cultures, Epiphany, "Three Kings Day," is the date of gift-giving. According to the three-year lectionary, Epiphany concludes attention to the infancy narratives with the story of the visit of the magi to the young Jesus, who is now residing in a house. The child Jesus is lauded as a king who is already showing himself forth to the nations.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

O Morning Star, How Fair and Bright

arr. Paul Manz

Please stand as you are able.

CONFESSON AND FORGIVENESS

Pastor:

Blessed be the holy Trinity,  one God,
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty Savior, Prince of Peace.

Assembly:

Amen.

Pastor:

Reconciling God,

Assembly:

we yearn for your presence to transform our grief, pain, and despair. We confess that we have not always prepared room in our hearts for your love; we have not always recognized your presence among us; we have not always embraced your message of peace.

We cry out, weary with the burden of violence, oppression, and fear. We confess our failure to make room for those seeking refuge; our participation in violent systems that harm your innocent ones; our reluctance to embody your good news. Be born in us today and teach us to sing the joyful song of your salvation. Amen.

Pastor:

God's grace upon grace flows over you. \dagger Christ's presence redeems the whole creation. Your sins are forgiven. Let the earth rejoice and be glad!

Assembly:

Amen.

The carol was first published in 1884 while its author, Rev. Dr. John Hopkins, was Rector of a parish in Williamsport, PA. Hopkins is the composer of both text and tune for this hymn. It is interesting to note that Hopkins was very specific that there was to be no slowing down on the "O..." that starts each refrain, a request that has been clearly thrown out by modern culture.

Hopkins has been criticized by Bible scholars that the first people to visit Christ from Eastern lands were not kings; nor were there three of them. Yet so many people who learn this carol at a young age carry this misconception into adult life. The Bible simply calls these men "magi." It is believed that this term refers to a caste of Persian priests or sorcerers who were experts in astrology, divination, and the interpretation of dreams. While they could have been rulers of a sort, there is no reason to believe they had great wealth.

GATHERING HYMN

Music: THREE KINGS OF ORIENT, John Henry Hopkins Jr., 1820-1891

GREETING

Pastor:

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Assembly:

And also with you.

Ours be the tell - ing of deeds great - ly done;
 yours be the glo - ry, O God, yours a - lone.

The prayer of the day is based on collect #87 in the Gregorian Sacramentary and uses the image of the star as a call to faithfulness. Christ is present not only for the ancient magi, but also for us now, a brilliant light in our darkness.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor:

Let us pray. O God, on this day you revealed your Son to the nations by the leading of a star. Lead us now by faith to know your presence in our lives, and bring us at last to the full vision of your glory, through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Assembly:

Amen.

Please sit.

LISTENING WITH CHILDREN'S EARS

The lectionary appoints this poem from Isaiah because it served as a backdrop for Matthew as he wrote of the meaning of the birth of Jesus. The light becomes for Matthew the star, and the gold and frankincense are gifts that the magi present. Thus for Matthew the gifts of the magi affirm that Christ is the light that the poem from Isaiah described.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 60:1-6

Jerusalem is assured that nations will make a pilgrimage to her because the light of God's presence is in her midst. The bountiful food of the sea and the profits of international trade will come streaming to Jerusalem and thereby declare God's praise.

Reader:

A reading from the prophet Isaiah:

¹Arise, shine; for your light has come,
and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

²For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples;
but the LORD will arise upon you,
and his glory will appear over you.

³Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn.

⁴Lift up your eyes and look around;
they all gather together, they come to you;
your sons shall come from far away,
and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms.

⁵Then you shall see and be radiant;
your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you,
the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

⁶A multitude of camels shall cover you,
the young camels of Midian and Ephah;

all those from Sheba shall come.
 They shall bring gold and frankincense,
 and shall proclaim the praise of the LORD.

Reader: Word of God, word of life.
Assembly: Thanks be to God.

The reading is appropriate for Epiphany because it speaks of the revelation of the mystery of Christ. The magi saw the light, and now believers also see the wisdom of God revealed in the life of Christ. We celebrate that light in our worship, and we see Christ in the scriptures, in the bread and wine, and in one another.

SECOND READING Ephesians 3:1-12
What had been hidden from previous generations is now made known through the gospel ministry of Paul and others. In Christ both Jews and Gentiles participate in the richness of God's promised salvation.

Reader: A reading from Paul's letter to the Ephesians:

¹This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles—²for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given me for you, ³and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, ⁴a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. ⁵In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: ⁶that is, the Gentiles have become fellow heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

⁷Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given me by the working of his power. ⁸Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, ⁹and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; ¹⁰so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. ¹¹This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹²in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

Reader: Word of God, word of life.
Assembly: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

(Setting 12)

Noth-ing in all cre - a - tion can sep - a - rate us from the love of God.

Noth-ing in all cre - a - tion can sep - a - rate us from the love of God.

This reading proclaims that even as a young child, Jesus is recognized as a king of the Jews who has significance for the entire globe. Even the sky shows new light. Not only Jews, but also people from other religions see God's light in Jesus. Christians have seen their gifts to the poor and to the church as like the gifts of the magi. Herod's threat is a down payment on the cross.

GOSPEL

Matthew 2:1-12

God's promise shines bright in the night as magi follow a star to honor a new king. Strangers from a faraway land, they welcome the long-awaited messiah of Israel.

Pastor: The Gospel according to Matthew the 2nd chapter.

Assembly: Glory to you, O Lord.

¹In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, ²asking, “Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay him homage.” ³When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; ⁴and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. ⁵They told him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet:

⁶“And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.’ ”

⁷Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. ⁸Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, “Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.” ⁹When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. ¹⁰When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy. ¹¹On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹²And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

Pastor: The Gospel of the Lord.

Assembly: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Please stand as you are able.

Epiphany marks the end of the Christmas season. “Jesus, the Light of the World” includes the Christmas text “Hark! The Herald Angels Sing” with a reminder that Jesus is the light of the world.

HYMN OF THE DAY

(ACS #914)

Jesus, the Light of the World

1 Hark! the her - ald an - gels sing, Je-sus, the Light of the world;
 2 Joy - ful, all you na - tions, rise; Je-sus, the Light of the world;
 3 Christ, by high - est heav'n a - dored, Je-sus, the Light of the world;
 4 Hail the heav'n-born Prince of peace! Je-sus, the Light of the world;

“Glo - ry to the new-born king,” Je-sus, the Light of the world.
 join the tri - umph of the skies; Je-sus, the Light of the world.
 Christ, the ev - er - last - ing Lord! Je-sus, the Light of the world.
 Hail the Sun of righ-teous-ness! Je-sus, the Light of the world.

Refrain

We'll walk in the light, beau-ti-ful light, come where the dew-drops of mer-cy are bright

Shine all a-round us by day and by night, Je-sus, the Light of the world.

APOSTLES' CREED

Assisting Minister: With the whole church let us profess our faith, Assembly: I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died, and was buried;
 he descended to the dead.
 On the third day he rose again;
 he ascended into heaven,
 he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Assisting Minister: Empowered by the news of Christ's birth, let us pray boldly for the church, creation, and all who are in need.

We pray for the greater church.

Assisting Minister: Repairer of the breach, you separate us from our sin and unite us with one another. Heal the animosity in our hearts, and bind us together in love. Hear us, O God.
Assembly: Your mercy is great.

We pray for creation.

Assisting Minister: Author of life, you sent your spirit over the waters, your breath into your children, and guiding stars across the sky. Awaken us to the plight of the planet and send us to care for your creation. Hear us, O God.
Assembly: Your mercy is great.

We pray for justice.

Assisting Minister: Light that leads the way, you make yourself known to the nations. Illuminate just paths and guide leaders in the church and the world in your holy will. Hear us, O God.

Assembly: Your mercy is great.

We pray for those in need.

Assisting Minister: Voice of the silenced, you cast the mighty from their thrones and fill the hungry with good things. Grant those in need the courage to demand equality and those with abundance the wisdom to share. Respond to any who call out in need this day, including those we name before you now (the assembly offers names). Hear us, O God.

Assembly: Your mercy is great.

We pray for this congregation.

Assisting Minister: Proclaimer of promises, you raise up prophets and messengers in the places we least expect. Equip Holy Cross Lutheran Church to listen well to those who bring both good news and painful truths. Hear us, O God.

Assembly: Your mercy is great.

We give thanks for the saints.

Assisting Minister: Redeemer of the saints, you gift us with many people throughout our lives who point the way to you. We give you thanks for the recently departed and all who have loved us. Hear us, O God.

Assembly: Your mercy is great.

Pastor: We commend these prayers to you, O God, trusting your grace made known to all, through the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Assembly: Amen.

THE PEACE

Pastor: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
Assembly: And also with you.

EUCARISTIC PRAYER

Pastor: Jesus was always the guest.

In the homes of Peter and Jairus, Martha and Mary, Joanna and Susanna, he was always the guest.

At the meal tables of the wealthy where he pled the case of the poor, he was always the guest. Upsetting polite company, befriending isolated people, welcoming the stranger, he was always the guest.

But here, at this table, he is the host. Those who wish to serve him must first be served by him. Those who want to follow him must first be fed by him. For this is the table where God intends us to be nourished.

This is the table where we who are broken are made whole. So, come, you who hunger and thirst for a deeper faith, for a better life, for a fairer world. Jesus Christ, who has sat at our tables, now invites us to be guests at his.

On the night in which he was betrayed, and as they were sitting at a meal, Jesus gave thanks, took a piece of bread and broke it. He gave it to the disciples saying, “This is my body. It is broken for you. Do this to remember me.

Later, after they had eaten, he took a cup of wine, gave thanks and said, “This cup is the new relationship with God made possible because of my death. Drink this all of you, to remember me.”

So now we do as Jesus did. We take this bread and wine, the produce of the earth and fruit of human labor. In these, Jesus has promised to be present; through these, Christ can make us whole.

We ask, merciful God, that you send, in kindness, your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and wine and fill them with the fullness of Jesus.

Let that same Spirit rest on us, call us from the folly of this world, until in wisdom, we conform to the shape of him whose food we now share.

All this we ask through your son, Jesus Christ. By him, with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

Assembly:

Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Pastor:

Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray.

Assembly:

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us;

and lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

forever and ever. Amen.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Pastor:

A child has been born for us, a Son given to us.

Come, receive the gift of Jesus.

Assembly:

Thanks be to God.

DISTRIBUTION

This is Christ's table of welcome. Jesus invites all who are hungry and thirsty for unconditional love and acceptance to come to God's banquet. The ushers will direct you forward at the appropriate time. Communion will be by station. Red wine and white grape juice are available in individual cups. Bread served is Gluten Free. If you wish to receive a blessing rather than communion, cross your arms over your chest. Return to your seat by the side aisle.

AGNUS DEI

(Setting 12)

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; grant us peace, grant us peace.

The same first and last stanzas frame this hymn. It drives to the fourth stanza, where the heart's adoration and the prayers of the poor count for more than any gifts we could bring with securing God's favor in mind.

Brightest and Best of the Stars

1 Bright-est and best of the stars of the morn - ing,
 2 Cold on his cra - dle the dew - drops are shin - ing;
 3 What shall we give him, in cost - ly de - vo - tion?
 4 Vain - ly we of - fer each am - ple ob - la - tion,
 5 Bright-est and best of the stars of the morn - ing,
 dawn on our dark - ness and lend us your aid.
 low lies his head - with the beasts of the stall;
 Shall we bring in - cense and of - frings di - vine,
 vain - ly with gifts would his fa - vor se - cure;
 dawn on our dark - ness and lend us your aid.

Star of the east, the ho - ri - zon a - dorn - ing, an - gels a - dore him in slum - ber re - clin - ing, gems of the moun - tain and pearls of the o - cean, rich - er by far is the heart's ad - o - ra - tion,
 Star of the east, the ho - ri - zon a - dorn - ing,
 guide where our in - fant re - deem - er is laid.
 mak - er and mon - arch and sav - ior of all.
 myrrh from the for - est or gold from the mine?
 dear - er to God are the prayers of the poor.
 guide where our in - fant re - deem - er is laid.

5 Oh, let the harps break forth in sound!
 Our joy be all with music crowned,
 our voices gaily blending!
 For Christ goes with us all the way—
 today, tomorrow, ev'ry day!
 His love is never ending!
 Sing out! Ring out!
 Jubilation!
 Exultation!
 Tell the story!
 Praise to Christ, who reigns in glory!

6 What joy to know, when life is past,
 the Lord we love is first and last,
 the end and the beginning!
 He will one day, oh, glorious grace, transport us to that happy place
 beyond all tears and sinning!
 Amen! Amen!
 Come, Lord Jesus!
 Crown of gladness!
 We are yearning
 for the day of your returning.

POST-COMMUNION BLESSING

Pastor: May the body and blood of our Lord Jesus Christ strengthen you and keep you in his grace.

Assembly: Amen.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Assisting Minister: Let us pray. Incarnate God, you are among us at this table. May we treasure this gift and ponder in our hearts the mystery of your presence. Move us to discover the wonders of your love in the everyday moments of our lives, through Christ born in us.

Assembly: Amen.

SENDING OF COMMUNION

Pastor: Gracious God, you took the form of a servant, offering yourself as food, comfort, and strength to a sick and hurting world. Anoint with a servant heart those who take your word and sacrament to our siblings in their homes and in hospitals. Grant grace, mercy, healing, and hope to those who feast on your body and blood and receive your words of new life. May we all recognize that we have a place and a home in the body of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Assembly: Amen.

WE ARE SENT FORTH TO SERVE

“Shine, Jesus, Shine” captures the heart of Epiphany: Christ revealed as light for the whole world. The opening plea, “Lord, the light of your love is shining” names Jesus as the radiant presence that breaks into human darkness, echoing the Epiphany themes of manifestation, guidance, and transformation.

As the hymn unfolds, the imagery widens from personal illumination to global mission. God’s glory is no private glow; it spills outward, calling the church to reflect Christ’s light “to the nations.” The energetic refrain functions almost like a sending; an invitation to live as people shaped and propelled by divine light.

BENEDICTION

Pastor:

The triune God, glorious Mystery, holy Incarnate One, abiding Comforter, \dagger bless you with endless grace, peace, and joy.

Amen.

DISMISSAL

Assisting Minister: Glory to God in the Highest!

Assembly: And peace to God’s people on earth!

Assisting Minister: Go in joy. Embody God’s redeeming grace.

Assembly: Thanks be to God.

POSTLUDE

Brightest and Best of the Stars of the Morning

arr. Wayne Wold

As part of our continuous efforts to make worship more inclusive and sensory friendly, we ask that you refrain from applauding during worship and after the postlude.

THIS WEEK'S COMMEMORATIONS

Adrian of Canterbury, teacher

Sun., January 9, 2022, died around 710

African by birth, Adrian (or Hadrian) worked with Theodore, archbishop of Canterbury, in developing the church in England. He was director of a school at which church leaders were trained.

Martin Luther King Jr., renewer of society

Sat., January 15, 2022, martyr, died 1968

An American prophet of justice among races and nations, King was an eloquent preacher, a leader of the nonviolent resistance to race-segregated society, and recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964. Born on this date, he was assassinated on April 4, 1968.

Antony of Egypt, renewer of the church, died around 356

Saturday, January 17, 2026

One of the earliest of the Egyptian desert fathers, Antony gave away his sizeable inheritance and became a hermit. Later he became leader of a group of monks who devoted themselves to prayer, worship, and labor.

Pachomius, renewer of the church, died 346

Saturday, January 17, 2026

Born in Egypt, Pachomius became a Christian while a soldier. He became a hermit (a solitary monk) and organized others into a religious community. His rule for monasteries influenced later ones in both the Eastern and Western churches.

FROM THE CLOUD OF WITNESSES

[Ambrose, in The Sunday Sermons of the Great Fathers, trans. and ed. M. F. Toal (Chicago: Henry Regnery, 1955), I, 213.]

The star is seen by the magi; where Herod is, it is not seen; it is seen again where Christ is, and it shows the magi the way. Therefore this star is the way, and the way is Christ: for in the mystery of the incarnation, Christ is a star. For he himself is the bright and morning star. He shows us himself therefore by his own light.

—Ambrose

An 1890 tapestry designed by the Pre-Raphaelite artist Edward Burne Jones is interesting especially because the magi are not depicted as kings. Mary is still wearing medieval royal red, and, as was traditional, Joseph is depicted as an old man.
